DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the seals having the features of claim 5 (i.e. some seals with both ends being concave and some seals with both ends convex) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 4-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Robison (2,469,078) in view of Nixon (4,554,748).

Robison discloses a sealing device comprising a plurality of L-shaped seal segments 14 having a flat surface with a hole and a curved surface to contact the cylinder. The seal has a ditch for sealing material 22, a pressing gadget, and springs. Robison does not appear to disclose that the seals are formed with a concave end and a convex end to mate with adjacent convex/concave ends of adjacent seals. Nixon teaches a sealing device comprising a plurality of seals having a flat surface and a round surface to contact a cylinder. Nixon teaches forming the ends of each seal with convex/concave portions to mate with adjacent segments to provide a leakproof interface. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the seal segments with concave/convex ends as taught by Nixon to provide a leakproof interface between sections, thus improving the overall seal. Regarding claim 5, it is also considered obvious to provide the concave features on one seal and the convex on an adjacent seal. See In re Japikse, 86 USPQ 70 (CCPA 1950).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 10-23-06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Nixon, Roubal, and Wold teach forming seal segments with convex/concave ends that overlap to prevent leakage.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
